Miss Elliott's work here was high-class and it was with common regret that she was obliged to close the winter term at the end of four weeks. Here, as elsewhere, la grippe made bad work with the school during the winter. Eighteen different scholars have been registered here at some time during the year, with an average of fifteen. Ten of these scholars came from Mason and eight from Greenville. Mason paid 55 per cent. and Greenville 45 per cent. of the cost of maintaining this school.

This school has been prosperous during the year, though the register shows a too large number of cases of absence and tardiness.

The treasurer's report shows how much of the thousand dollar appropriation has been expended-for repairs. The roof at the east school has been puttin thorough repair. A new steam heating and ventilating apparatus has been put in the village school-house. Owing to the exposed position of the building, the new boiler has proved too small to thoroughly heat the house in the coldest weather. A new one will be put in during the spring vacation without expense to the district.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for one term: Josphine Conley, Annie Ames, Fred Marsh, Archie Nutting, Beatrice Taft, Nora Bresnahan, Charlie Douglass, Irving Hodgman, Edith Sargent, Ida Ames, Edith Douglass, Etta Ritter, Waldo Adams, Aldea Caouette, Mary Batchelder, Tracy Eaton, Harold Willard, Joseph Batchelder, Ernest Russell.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for two terms: Emma Ames, Mamie Munsey, Edith Nutting, Victorine Caouette, Herbert Doonan, Merton Sanborn, Elsie Willard, Libbie Hastings.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for three terms: Nina Doonan, Frank Doonan, George Doonan, Elmer Russell.

Adrian Hall has been neither absent nor tardy for two years.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES E. HALL, WILLIAM C. GREENE, HERBERT J. TAFT.
